How To Join The Forum

Welcome to The Forum on Human Rights at The Carter Center. We look forward to your participation in constructive discussions focused on advancing human rights.

Joining our community allows you to start and participate in discussions, and to add media resources to the library. To join, follow the steps below to create an account.

1. At forum.cartercenter.org, hover your mouse pointer over the “Join the Community” tab at top right.

2. A window labeled “Register” will drop down. Here, please provide your first and last name, email address, and a “Display Name”. Your display name is how you will be known to other members of The Forum.

3. When you have completed these fields, click the “NEXT” button at the bottom right, below the Display Name field.

4. Enter your preferred password on this screen. Underneath the “Password” box, click in the box to make your profile public. This allows your display name and profile page to be seen by other members of The Forum. Otherwise your contributions will be attributed to “Private User.”
5. After creating your password and selecting whether or not to make your profile public, click the “SIGN UP” button underneath the “Confirm Password” box.

6. A Forum administrator will review your membership request. Following approval, you will receive an email message with directions on logging in to your account for the first time. Click the link in the email or copy and paste it into your Web browser.

 If you do not receive an email within a day, check your email “Spam” or “Junk” folders. Please mark emails from The Forum on Women, Religion, Violence and Power as “Not Spam.” **

7. After opening the email link, you will be prompted to click the gold one-time login button. This link will only work once.

8. On your profile page, you may upload a photo (under 1MB please) and add information such as your position, organization, website address, and a brief biography to help other community members get to know you.

9. When you are satisfied with the information you have entered, click “Save” at bottom right.

Now you may participate in existing Forum discussions or start your own, upload media resources, and contribute to live chats in the community to advance human rights around the world.

If you have any questions or need help, contact the Forum Admin team at forum@cartercenter.org.
